Some will say it will mean "extra-

Vare's Friends Betray Fear He'll Suffer Smith's Fate

Entry into Senate in Seventh Congress Regarded as Impossible

BY CHARLES P. STEWART

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Ever since the senate voted against seating Col. Frank J. Smith, as one of its members from Illinois, friends of representative William S. Vare of Pennsylvania have been looking pretty grim.

The Vare-ites weren't surprised at the vote against Smith, but they were surprised by the size of it. Nobody expected Smith to get in, but Vare figured that he had a rather better case than Smith. If Smith had been beaten by 15 votes, there would have been some hope of getting him half a dozen more votes than Smith did and then speaking through where Smith would.

But Smith lost by 15 votes. That Vare can gain anything like that many on him is generally regarded as almost impossible. In fact, Vare will stand less chance in the next senate, than he did stand now, as Smith tried to do.

This is the big end of the sixteenth congress. Vare's case will come up in the senate. In the new senate there will be six more Democrats than there are now. Smith and Vare both are Republicans. The Democrats voted mostly against Smith and they sure to vote mostly against Vare. The Republican organization was for Smith but 15 Republican senators bolted and joined the Democrats. The Democratic organization was against Smith but four Democrats bolted and joined the organization Republicans.

Vare doubtless will get the four Democratic Smith ballots and he may get some of the six new ones. Perhaps, too, fewer Republicans will bolt him than bolted Smith. But it is altogether unlikely that he can win by any possible margin.

Theoretically Smith may still get in. Practically he stands no show. His supporters argued that he ought to be seated and then investigated. The senate voted to investigate him first and then seat him, if the investigation showed that he didn't accept a $125,000 campaign contribution from Samuel Insull, public utilities magnate—a contribution which was declared to be highly improper if he did accept it.

No particular campaign contribution or expenditure has been pinned on Vare as improper. He admittedly spent a huge sum and general charges of irregularities are made but there's nothing yet as definite as the Insull charge against Smith.

Besides, Smith spent more than anybody else in the Illinois senatorial fight and won it. Vare won but he was only second on the list of spenders in Pennsylvania. Scott Pepper, whom he beat for re-nomination, spent much more than he did. Vare says Pepper spent so much that he (Vare) had to be pretty liberal.

In effect, the senate says to Smith: "If you did so-and-so, you did wrong and we bar you." Smith says: "I did it, but it wasn't wrong." "It was, so you stay outside," votes the senate.

In Vare's case indications are that

LAYER OF ICE PREVENTS HUNT FOR VIRDEN BOY

Something New in Ice Cream

BOWE ICE CREAM CO. Phone 4197.

18-year-old Business College student who is supposed to have committed suicide by drowning himself in the lake on Dec. 2.

A relative of the boy visited the lake Monday and found that the ice covering is fully six inches thick and is opaque, obscuring the view into the water and making it impossible to ascertain whether the body had risen to the surface. Unless a spell of warm weather, lasting for at least a week should set in, it is believed that it may be a month before the ice has melted sufficiently to make a renewal of the search for the body possible.

During the period of freezing weather which has halted the hunt at the lake, local authorities and relatives of the boy have investigated every angle of the case, dealing with the theory that he did not drown himself but merely ran away from home and left a suicide note to cover up his tracks.

This investigation has resulted in convincing those interested in the case that young Virden actually did take his life and that his body will eventually be found in the lake. Communication has been established with relatives living in distant localities and various alleged clues tending to show that the boy ran away and is still alive have been run down and proven groundless.

If the boy really is alive, his disappearance was remarkably well executed and his trail completely covered, authorities state.

Several weeks ago boy friends of young Virden reported that he had announced his intention of going to Detroit. Acting on this information, Sheriff James A. Deal sent a photograph and complete description of the missing youth to Detroit, requesting police there to hunt for him. Special attention was given to a search of all restaurants in the Michigan city, as young Virden had experience in restaurant work and it was thought he would seek employment of that kind. Detroit officers have reported that they have been able to find no trace of the boy.

If the body is in the lake and is not caught on some projection on the sides or bottom of the lake, it should be found at the surface when the ice clears off.

Behind the Screen

Ann Christy really is a curiosity on the Christie Comedy lot since she is the only actress around those parts who hasn't felt the touch of the barber's clippers. With her curls, she came to Hollywood six months ago. Bobby Vernon is credited with discovering her. He recommended that Miss Christy, who was one of the extras on the set in his comedy, "Wife Shy" he given a good part, which developed during the filming. Now she's a leading lady for Jimmie Adams.

IS Hollywood unkind to the foreign stars and directors who come to this country with an enviable record of past achievement across the ocean? Robert Sherwood, New York critic, points out that few have made a very great or lasting impression in movies here. Ernst Lubitsch is perhaps the most successful. His "Marriage Circle," "Lady Windermere's Fan" and "Kiss Me Again" are ranked high in the field of sophisticated comedy.

Pola Negri has been greatly hampered by poor vehicles, differences with her employers and whitewashing the parts set by "Paramount" and several other productions which she made in Germany.

Lya De Putti hasn't lived up to the expectations of Paramount, who thought they had a "find" in her, after viewing her work in "Variety." Emil Jennings, the star of "Variety," is now at work on his first picture in this country, "The Man, God, Forgive."

Will be, too, Germany's greatest, fail to attain the heights in American films? Among the directors are Aeneas Gade, Lothar Mendes, Benjamin Christensen, Dimitri Buchowetzki, all of them have fared fairly well, but not one has turned out a tremendous success.

Starred by attractive contracts, the foreign celebrities come, hoping to further their art with the aid of United States dollars. Then come clashes of view point, unfamiliar working conditions and disappointment.

George Bancroft simply can't avoid being a gunman.

With his selection for the role of "Frisco Jimmie" in "Too Many Crooks," with Mildred Davis and Lloyd Hughes, Bancroft has hung up a record of appearing in seven consecutive pictures as an expert shot.

He was the bad man in "The Pony Express," "The Enchanted Hill," "See How They Run," "The Runaway," "The Rough Riders" and "Old Ironsides." Raymond Hatton's first picture since his split with Wallace Berry will be "Fashion for Women" starring Esther Hamilton. It is also Dorothy Arzner's initial effort as a Paramount director.

1. The first step is to identify the problem. This involves understanding the current situation and the goals that need to be achieved.

A great ship of the air capable of carrying fifty passengers, a restaurant second to none in the world, sleeping apartments, observation car, a ball-room in which passengers may dance to music given in constant radio-gramophone with the land and with ships at sea. What more will you not do?

The fact that an economist of broad reputation sees in the present social and economic system a cause for concern is significant. It is a frank admission that the employment of women, the two-room apartment and the Calceolarian dinner have created a situation which wage theories propounded a generation ago did not take into account. And it recognizes the fact that high living costs are directly responsible for the lowering of the birth rate among those best fitted for parenthood, and are thus indirectly chargeable with other unwholesome tendencies in our present civilization.

TO PLACE NEW RAIL BRIDGE IN NEAR FUTURE

Steel and Concrete Structure To Span Sandusky River at Bucyrus

Bucyrus, Feb. 2.—The new Pennsylvania railroad bridge across the Sandusky river here will be moved into place within a week it was said by workers today.

The new structure has been built of steel and concrete and is now resting on the river, parallel to the old bridge structure. When the work is completed it is planned to pull the old bridge out of its foundations to the north of the right of way. The new bridge, built in two sections, will be moved into place and then service will proceed with the least possible interruption.

Work on the new railway bridge was started last summer and has been pushed forward during the winter months. The tracks were supported by a series of heavy wooden piles and the old heavy stone abutment were torn out and new concrete supports constructed in their place. Recently workers have been constructing the steel and concrete bridges now ready for placement. Several contract companies have been engaged in the work. At no time during the construction has train service been interrupted.

LIONS LEADING

Much Interest Shown in LaRue Volleyball League

Three extra games were played by Holliday and Ling to make up games canceled some time ago and resulted in a clean sweep for Holliday. This put Holliday in third place and lowered Ling to the cellar.

H.R. Townsend Rules Kenton Armory Will Be Scene of District Championship Tilts

Columbus, Feb. 2.—All basketball games scheduled in the Northwest District Intercollegiate Championship High School Tournament will be played at Kenton Armory March 4 and 5. It was announced here today by H. R. Townsend, commissioner of Ohio high school athletics.

Objections raised by Lima, South Lima Central and Van Wert High Schools against playing at Kenton were not allowed, although Townsend declared next year's games would not be played at Kenton. Teams failing to enter in accordance with Jan. 20 drawings will forfeit 2-0. Referee, umpire, time and score are to be chosen by Townsend.

Next year schools will be allowed to express their preference for the tournament location, Townsend said.

TO MEET WITH OFFICIALS FROM SOUTH AMERICA

Believed That Session Has Connection With World's Championship Corn Record

Kenton, Feb. 2.—Ira C. Marshall, prominent Harbottle County farmer and two time winner of the world's corn growing championship, was to leave Columbus, where he is attending Farmers' Week, today for Washington, D. C., to meet in conference with the ambassador and other official representatives from Chile, South America, according to word received here last night.

President Coolidge was to attend the conference Thursday afternoon, it was said. The nature of the meeting was not made known however. It is believed that it relates to Marshall's record and the possibility of introducing the championship corn into the South American country.

Both Mr. Marshall and his son, Glenn, the world's leading corn grower, are participating in the program for Farmers' Week under way in Columbus. The father smashed his old record of 100.1 bushels of corn to the acre on a 10-acre plot, last season when he boosted the yield to more than 138 bushels to the acre. The son came second with the largest 10-acre yield in the world.

While the older Marshall is president of the Ohio Standard Bushel Corn Club, an honorary agricultural society, the son has the unique distinction of being the youngest member ever enrolled. He is 19 and a student at Ohio Northern.

When the state corn club holds its annual banquet Thursday night at Columbus special honor is to be bestowed upon the father and son.

They are also to be given medals at the Columbus session for honors won with their exhibits of corn. The father took first place and the son second in utility corn.

DECISION OF COURT AWAITED BY BROWNING

Henking Goose and Rubber Balls Pass Out of White Plains Picture

New York, Feb. 2—"Daddy" and "Peaches" today retired to their respective apartments to rest and recover, if possible, from the charges and counter-charges which they hurled at each other during their trial for separation in White Plains.

The henking geese and the rubber balls had their day in court, and now the attorneys for Edward West Browning and his young wife, and former Frances Heenan, are engaged in preparing briefs which they will submit to Judge Seeger within two weeks. The judge will then study these documents, the testimony given during the trial, which was the most popular entertainment since the trial of the Countess in years, and eventually, in perhaps a month, he will render his decision.

Privacy More Starred
Not until then will "Daddy" know how large a slice of his millions will go to the youthful "Peaches". If any, not will she know whether she and "Ma" Heenan can continue to live in comfort, or whether they must go back to their former role of shop girl and nurse, respectively.

The only tangible result of the performance so far is considerable wear and tear suffered by the White Plains courthouse at the hands of the mob which witnessed the trial, and a strong movement to have such litigation held in private in the future.

Justice Seeger himself announced that if ever again such a case comes before him, he will have the public from the court, and also the press.

"I believe that before another year is passed a statute will stand on the books making secrecy in such a case mandatory," he said.

DREAMS FADE

Youthful Zanville Elpers Returned From Wheeling By Police

Zanville, Feb. 2—Honey-moon dreams of 18-year-old Beulah Tracy and Leroy Bear burst in the county jail here today when the youthful shop-ers were returned from Wheeling, W. Va., for juvenile court authorities.

The youthful pair was refused a license at Wheeling Saturday but decided this should not interfere with their plans.

Mrs. Muriel Tracy, mother of the girl, was held for contributing to the alleged delinquency when authorities were told she gave the children $20 "to go and get married."

SIXTY PATIENTS ESCAPE FROM BURNING HOSPITAL

"Firebug" Believed Responsible for $150,000 Loss to Ann Arbor Institution

Ann Arbor, Mich., Feb. 2—"Firebug" today was believed responsible for the fire which destroyed the convalescent ward of the University General Hospital and damaged the Jennings House nearby last night. The loss is $150,000.

Sixty patients, many of them on wheel coats, which were slid to safety on chutes, were removed from the burning structure just before the roof collapsed. No one was injured.

In the midst of the fight against the hospital fire, firemen were compelled to divert their attention to the Jennings House across the street, which had been filled with patients removed from the burning ward.

Billows of smoke were seen pouring out of the basement of the Jennings House. This fire was soon put under control.

The origin of both fires is shrouded in mystery. University and local officials were planning an investigation. Stanley Haynes, director of the hospital, today advanced the theory that these and other recent blazes at various university hospital units may have been the work of a "firebug".

There were fires at the Natural Science building two weeks ago and at the Internes' house five weeks ago. There have been several other fires with no great damage in recent years in the building housing the hospital convalescent ward.

SKIES CLOUDED 22 DAYS DURING JANUARY, CLAIM

Weatherman's Report Shows Lowest Temperature Was Two Below Zero

January was a month of clouds, according to the monthly report of Dr. E. H. Haffensperger, local weather observer. There were seven clear days, two partly cloudy and 22 cloudy days during the month. The lowest temperature recorded on the official thermometer was two degrees below zero, on Jan. 15, and from this low mark the mercury began an upward march until it reached a high point of 50 degrees on Jan. 30. Only two below-zero readings are shown on the report, two degrees below being registered on Jan. 15 and one degree below being registered on Jan. 16. The drop that led up to the below zero weather started on Jan. 6, and the daily readings dropped off until the below zero mark was reached.

Total snowfall during the month was seven and one-half inches, with the heaviest on Jan. 18, of three inches. After the heavy snow, rain came along, and 3.0 of an inch fell, the heaviest rain of the month. Sleet was recorded on three days, Jan. 23, 24, and 28.

Careless Washing Spoils the Hair

The simple hair styles of today make beautiful hair a necessity. Luckily, beautiful hair is now easily obtained. It is simply a matter of shampooing.

Proper shampooing makes the hair soft and silky. It brings out all the real life and lustre, all the natural wave and color, and leaves it fresh looking, glossy and bright.

While your hair must have frequent and regular washing to keep it beautiful, it cannot stand the harsh effect of ordinary soaps. The free alkali in ordinary soaps soon dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and causes it to fall out.

That is why discriminating women everywhere now use Mulsified Coconut Oil Shampoo. This clear, pure and entirely greaseless product brings out all the real beauty of the hair and cannot possibly injure it.

Two of three teaspoons is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather which cleanses thoroughly and rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dirt and dandruff.

It leaves the hair soft and easy to manage and makes it fairly sparkle with new life, gloss and lustre.

You can get Mulsified Coconut Oil Shampoo at any drug store.

A four-ounce bottle lasts for months.

MOTORS NOW IN COMPETITION WITH RAILROADS

Current Issue of Magazine Points Out Motor No Longer Supplementary

It is now generally agreed that motor transportation is supplementary to rail transportation. The very percentage of motor transportation at the present time is negligible. An article in the current issue of "Railroad Data" declares: "According to the last authoritative figures, there are a total of 1,253 motor trucks with a route mileage of 11,440 miles running in connection with railroads throughout the country. There are 225 motor trucks with a route mileage of 3,422 miles running in connection with the existing railroad lines throughout the United States. There are 225 motor trucks with a route mileage of 4,225 being operated throughout the country in connection with railroad service. But there are 33,207 motor trucks with a route mileage of 907,029 miles which are running in competition with the railroads, according to figures. All these facts are brought out in the recent statistical summary of the Interstate Commerce Commission, received here a few days ago. This summary the commission has made public in advance of its findings and recommendations. Every common carrier subject to the Interstate Commerce Act was made a party to the proceedings and was required to furnish to the commission all vital information regarding motor transportation. This is reported to be the first effort of the Interstate Commerce commission to collect information regarding this comparatively new factor in the nation's transportation system.

INTEREST IN SCHOOLS ON INCREASE REPORT SHOWS

Attendance of Students and Visits by Parents Above Average in December

Attendance of students and number of visits of parents and other persons interested in the schools during December was larger in the final month of 1920 than in any December in the last four years, the monthly report of the schools shows. The report was not compiled at the regular time because of rush of work during the closing days of the first school semester. School attendance during last December reached the high point of 5,528 students. This is 75 students more than were in the schools during December, 1920, and 125 students more than during December, 1919.

Last December also marked the highest point of visits by parents and others to the schools, 117 persons visiting the schools during that month. This is more visitors than the schools have had in any other month in the last four years. Silverst school had the largest number of visitors, 275 during the month. Pearl-st school stood high in the number of visits, with 125. Percent of attendance during the last December was 94.2 of the enrollment. This is approximately the same as November, 1920, and an increase over December, 1920, the report shows.

Embarrassing Position Experienced By Bronx Lady

Miss Jeanne Glasberg, Bronx, N. Y., writes: "I had become accustomed to arising each day with a heavy head dizzy and bad taste in my mouth. My bowels were frequently clogged and constipated. One day I became so sick to my stomach I had to leave an important job and go home. A friend advised me to take CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS. I feel greatly relieved since using them and whenever my stomach and head goes bad again I'll certainly know what to do."

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS are sugar coated, small, easy to swallow, purely vegetable, and relieve the bowels free from pain. They tone the system as they are purely vegetable and do not contain Mercury, Calomel or other poisonous drugs.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS, Pac. and T&C, red packages.

In nearly every home

A piece of furniture may be well made, but still undesirable because it is a misfit—does not harmonize with its surroundings.

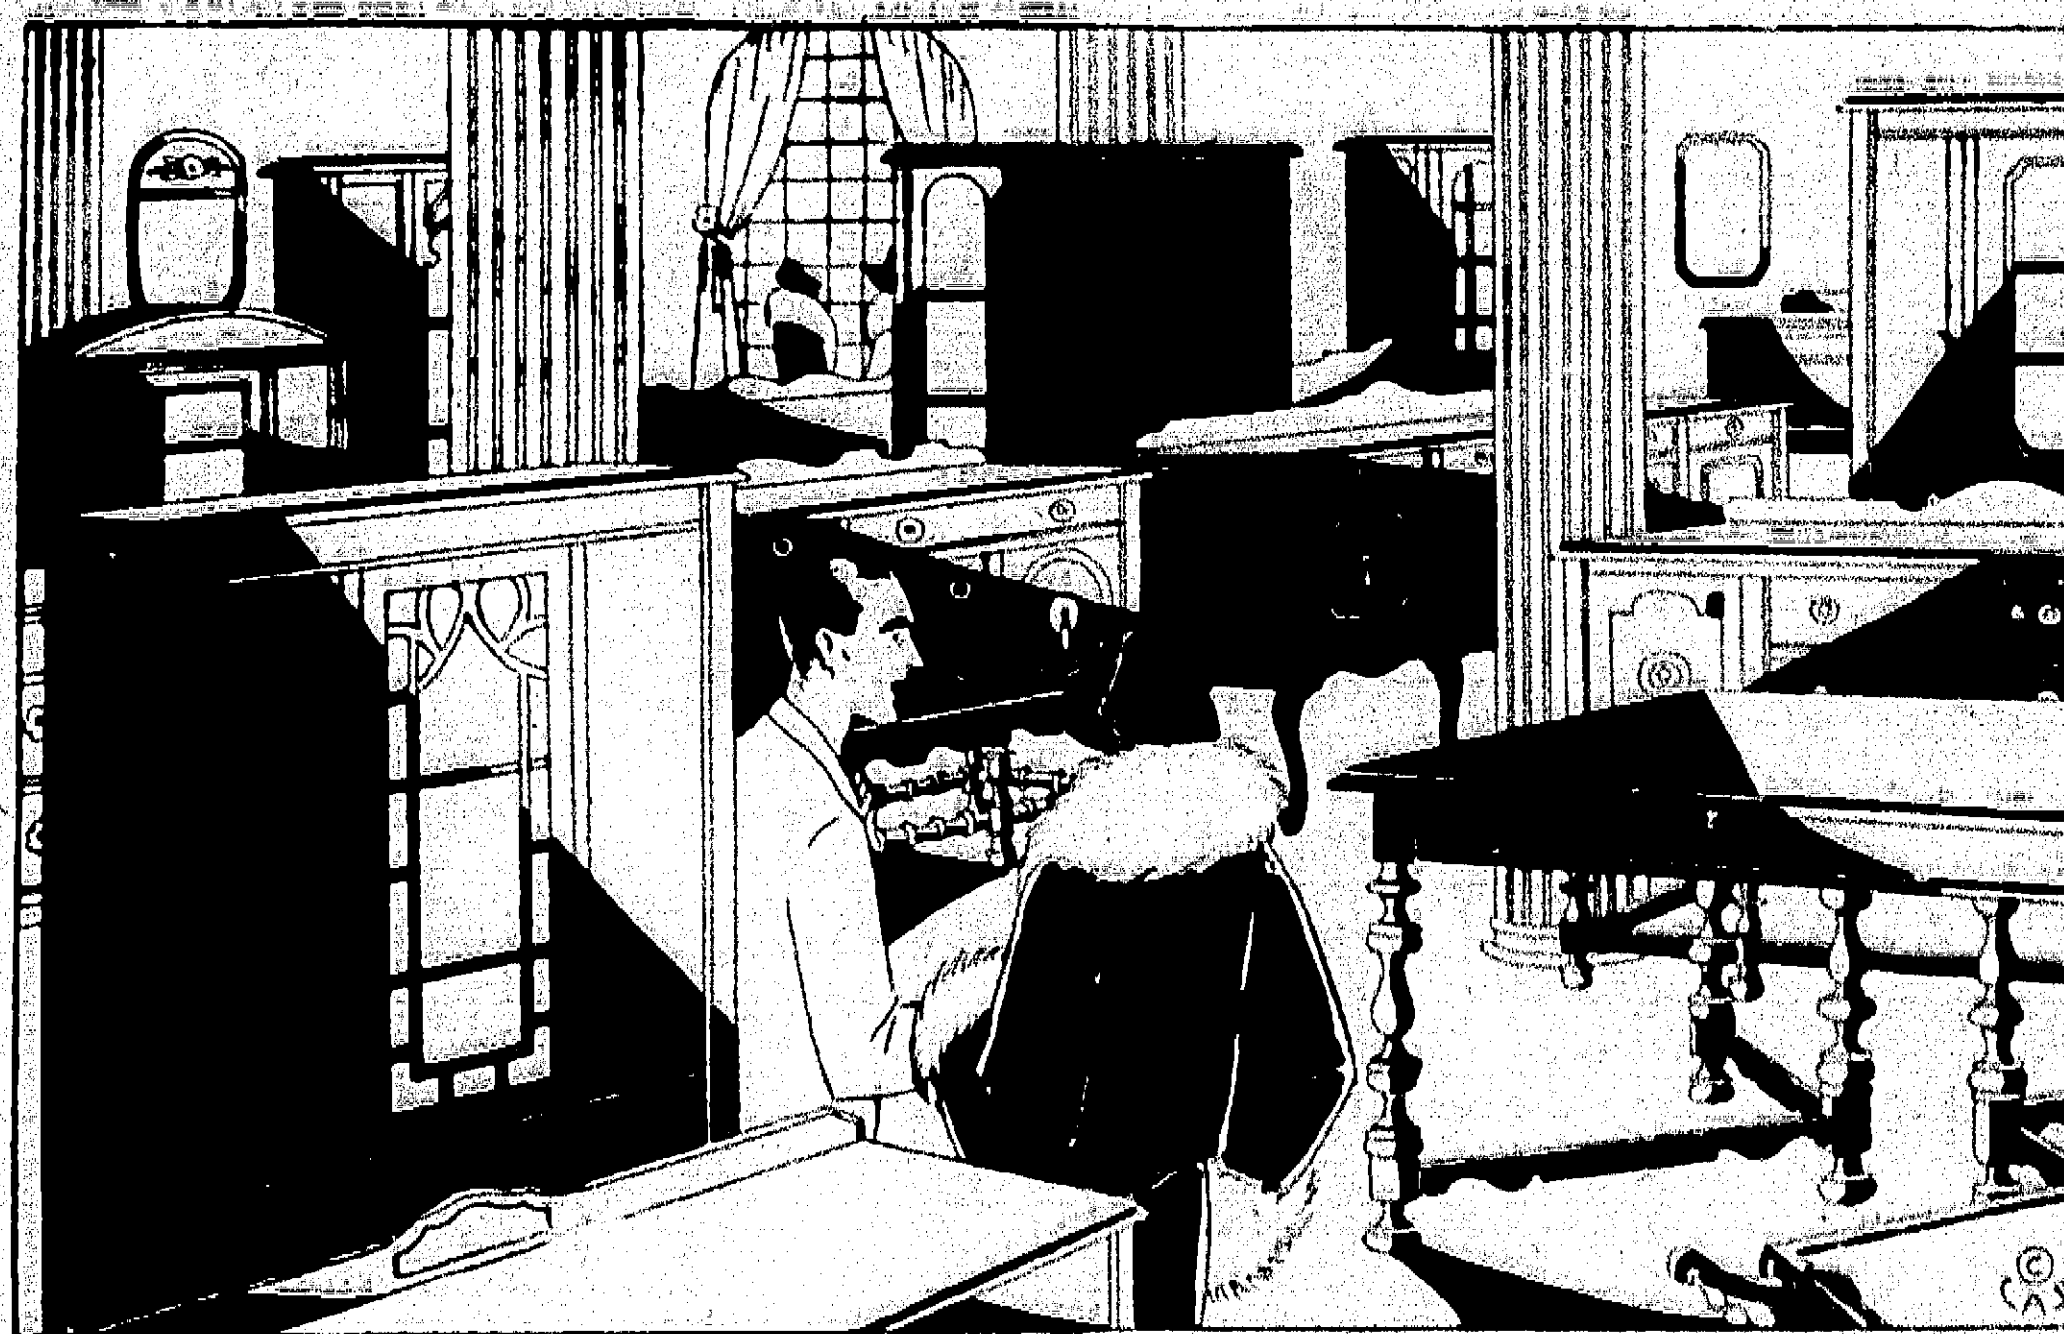

Styles in furniture are changing with greater and greater frequency.

There are only two of the many reasons why our Exchange Department is so popular—and why it is so busy.

No longer wanted furniture—for whatever the reason may be—can now be turned in as part payment on new, modernly designed, up-to-the-minute furniture.

The plan is simple. Let us know what you wish to trade in and what NEW furniture you wish to place in your home. Without obligation on your part, our Appraisal Man will call at your home (whether you live in town, or out) and he will let you know just how much can be allowed for your used pieces.

This is a Service with us—one that you are welcome to use.

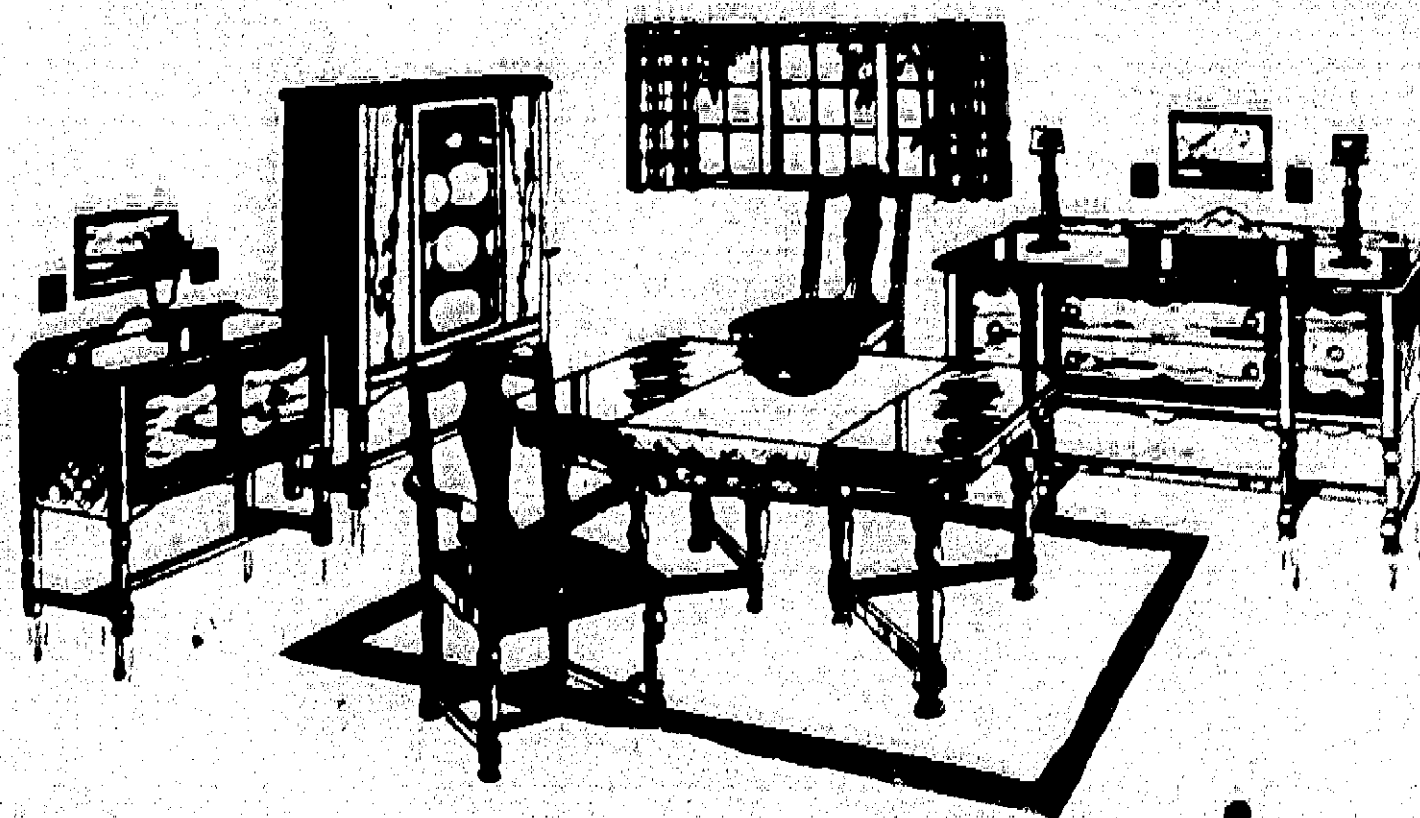

All furniture stores extend "Credit"—

That is a custom of the trade. The only difference lies in the manner in which credit is extended, and the kind of furniture sold.

Some stores are said to sell "Terms," rather than Furniture. We suppose this is to meet a certain demand, but in such cases it's a crime to call the interior, mongrel still "furniture." The price of such "price Furniture" must be limited. The glue does not hold out, other things happen and the victim refuses to pay—no to offset such loss, the price must be "up in the sky" in the first place.

We extend credit, but we do not sell it. We sell Furniture—and only good Furniture. If you are a working man or woman, or a busy man or woman, you can have what credit you need—and you can have it without a lot of red tape and prose examination. Just select what you want and then tell the salesman that you wish to open an account. That's all there is to it—here!
